Many individuals and families do not know they qualify for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), including veterans, college students and single adults. Figuring out how much SNAP you could receive is easy and applications can be done online.

Join the Safety Net Project of Harvard Law School’s Legal Services Center for a short overview of SNAP and receive individual help for yourself or those you know who could benefit from assistance buying food each month.

This webinar will be presented on Zoom. Registrants may phone in, if preferred.
